Gogo: I like this guitar. I can play the guitar very well. Can I take it?

Tony: No, Gogo. You can't take it. We have to pay for it.

OK. Gogo:

Gogo talks to Jenny and Tony's parents.

Gogo: Buy this for me.

Tony: No, Gogo. You should ask nicely.

You should say "please".

Ah. Please buy this for me. Gogo:

Dad: I'm sorry, Gogo. We can't.

It's too expensive, and you have lots of toys at home.

Gogo is sad, but then he has an idea...

- What does Gogo want?
- Can Jenny and Tony's parents buy it?
- 3 What does Gogo do in the end?
- Look at the poster. Complete the conversation with the words from the box.

Jack: Look at the guitar. It's 92 ... Susan: I like the little bear, but it's _____ yuan. That's ____!

Yeah, but the ball isn't. It's only _____ yuan. That's _____. Jack:

Susan: Maybe you can _____ the ball for your brother.

Jack: Hmm, but I hope my dad buys it for me!

Shopping

We often go shopping on Monday morning. We need to buy food, clothes, shoes, and many other things.

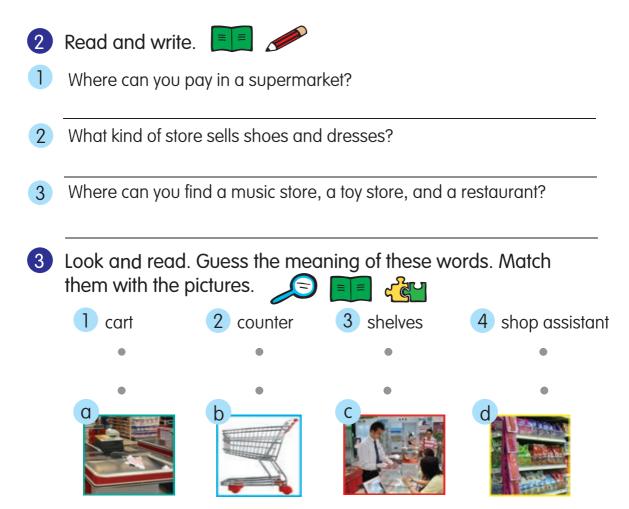

This is a shopping mall. There are lots of shops. There are lots of restaurants, too.

This is a department store. It's very big. In a department store, you can buy things from shop assistants.

A supermarket is also very big, but it doesn't have shop assistants. You take things from shelves and put them in a cart. You then pay at the counter.

Laura: Hello.

Mom: Hi, Laura. It's Mom. I'm at the _____.
I'm getting some food. Do we need any _____? Can you look in the fridge, please?
Laura: OK. We don't meat. I think we need some ice cream.

Mom: I don't think so, Laura. Now finish your homework, please. See you later!
